

History

- 1994 – Founded in Leipzig by Jürgen Alberding
 - Distribution of Trimble GPS surveying & mapping systems
- 2003 – Reorganization and move to Brandenburg
 - Outsourcing of the Trimble sales department in a new company
 - Start of own software developments in the GPS infrastructure segment
- 2007 – New company name: Alberding GmbH
 - Trademark problems with the old company name
- 2009 – Independency from GNSS hardware manufacturers
 - Sale of the Trimble sales department to Trimble
 - Start of own sensor developments
- 2021 – SME based in Wildau (near Berlin)
 - 15 Employees (14 engineers)

